Season's Greetings

Dear Institutional,

As we approach the end of another year, I would like to take a moment to extend my warmest season's greetings to all of you. This time of year is not only a time for celebration but also a moment for reflection and gratitude.

I am immensely thankful for the dedication and support of our faculty, staff, students, alums, and partners. Your commitment to excellence and innovation has been instrumental in our achievements this year. Together, we have navigated challenges, embraced new opportunities, and fostered an environment of growth and collaboration.

As we look forward to the upcoming year, let us continue to work together to inspire and empower our community. I am filled with optimism about the possibilities that lie ahead. Together, we can continue innovating, inspiring, and making a meaningful impact on society. I encourage you to embrace the new year with renewed energy and enthusiasm.

I wish you and your loved ones a joyful holiday season filled with peace, happiness, and prosperity.

Thank you for being essential to our School of Business and Technology.

Warm regards,

Rohan Thompson
